TURKISH SHIPPING AWARDS 2008

NOMINATION FORM RULES & PROCEDURES

ELIGIBILITY

The Lloyd's List Turkish Shipping Awards is intended to honour achievement in the Turkish shipping community. For most of the Awards, "Turkish" is identified as based in Turkey or else of Turkish 'ethnicity' if based outside Turkey. In the case of service awards, non-Turkish companies are eligible but must be demonstrably active in the Turkish shipping marketplace (see 'Who can be nominated'). The judges' decision on eligibility will be final.

WHO CAN NOMINATE?

Every person involved in the Shipping Industry (Turkish and International) is entitled to nominate candidates.

You may, however, ONLY nominate ONE person or company/organization FOR EACH AWARD CATEGORY.

Please read the criteria below to ensure that your nominee is indeed eligible for this category.

NOMINATIONS:

All nominations must be in the English language, clearly readable and the form must be completed in full with your full contact details as well as a one line reason for why your nominee merits the award. We shall then contact the nominee and ask them to justify their nomination.

This nominations form may also be completed electronically through our website: www.lloydslist.com (click on Turkish Shipping Awards link and refer to "Nominations").

Nominations may also be accepted by a simple fax letter or email, as long as you include all necessary contact information. Clearly state the category of award and nominee, and include a reason why your candidate would be a worthy winner (in no more than 500 words for each nominee).

The Lloyd's List Turkish Shipping Awards are adjudicated based on the QUALITY of nominations, NOT on the number of entries received for any particular candidate.

IMPORTANT

Lloyd's List reserves all rights to exclude any nomination that is improperly submitted or after the closing date of 25th April, 2008. Thereafter, all decisions made by the independent panel of judges shall be final.

Closing date
for nominations:
Friday, April 25, 2008

WHO CAN BE NOMINATED

(by category)

Dry Cargo Company of the Year

Turkish companies owning or operating bulk carriers, containerships, freight ro-ros and any other category of dry cargo vessel.

Tanker Company of the Year

Turkish energy shipping companies owning or operating ships carrying any type of liquid and energy cargoes, including oil tankers, product tankers, other types of liquid cargo, LPG or LNG.

Ship of the Year

Any vessel built in Turkey or for a Turkish operator. This award will be made to the owner of the vessel if owner is Turkish. If owner is not Turkish, the award will be made to the Turkish shipyard where it was constructed.

Shipyard of the Year

Any Turkish Shipyard or shipyard providing design, construction, conversion or repair services to the Turkish shipping industry (yacht building excluded – see next category)

Yacht Building Company of the Year

For expertise and innovation by any Turkish company involved in the design and construction of yachts.

Shipping Financier of the Year

Turkish or non-Turkish banks or other financial institutions active in financing Turkish shipping.

Port of the Year

Any Turkish Port meeting the criteria of giving outstanding service to the Turkish shipping industry.

Marina of the Year

Open to private and public marinas. Any Turkish Marina meeting the criteria of outstanding service to the Turkish leisure and tourism industry.

Cruise Terminal of the Year

For outstanding service and contribution to the promotion and development of Turkish tourism through cruise passenger facilities and traffic.

Transport Logistics Company of the Year

For performance and innovation by a Turkish company in transport logistics in either shipping, road transport, rail transport, warehousing or intermodalism.

Criteria & Adjudication

An independent judging panel representing a broad cross-section of the Turkish shipping community and impartial experts in the industry will assess nominations and decide the recipients of all awards, with the sole exception of Newsmaker of the Year whose winner will be decided by the editorial staff of Lloyd's List.

Our distinguished panel will be asked to assess the candidates in each field objectively and, with the exception of the 'Lifetime Achievement' category, to attach most importance to meritorious activity in the last year (defined as 2007-2008, with particular emphasis on the 12-month period up to April 2008).

Liner Shipping Company of the Year

An award for a shipping line deemed to have made a significant contribution to Turkey's import and export industries or the Turkish shipping industry generally. Open to global lines as well as Turkish lines.

Training & Education Award

For a significant contribution by a company or institution to improve the efficiency of the Turkish shipping industry through specialised training and/or education programmes.

Maritime Services Award

For excellence and innovation in maritime support services provided by a Turkish company or organisation. Open to ship agents, suppliers, insurance brokers, shipbrokers, classification societies, bunker services, telecommunications, IT and software or any other important service to Turkish shipping.

Award for Achievement in Safety or Environmental Protection

For Turkish individuals, crews, companies and other organizations whose act, initiative or product contributes to safety and/or environmental protection.

Turkish Shipping Newsmaker of the Year

Turkish personalities, companies or organisations 'in the news' during the past 12 months year – to be chosen by Lloyd's List from proposals by senior editorial staff. (No outside nominations, please).

Turkish Shipping Personality of the Year

For Turkish personalities whose recent initiatives or achievement in the industry exemplifying the dynamism, quality or importance of Turkish shipping.

Lifetime Achievement Award

For Turkish personalities whose past successes or long record of contribution to the industry exemplify the best in Turkish shipping.

Specific criteria for adjudicating the awards are not established by the organisers, and may differ broadly from award to award. Suggested criteria may include, but are not limited to: business success, quality, growth, exemplary initiative, financial results, share price, investment, integrity, service, safety, environmental record, commercial acumen, technical or operational performance, employment, innovation, good corporate citizenship, or any other criteria the panel individually or collectively wishes to take into consideration, depending on the award category.

The judges' deliberations and selections, to be decided democratically, are at their own discretion and the panel's decisions are final.
